If there's one man who's determined to give Las Vegas legit underground DJ sets, it's Thom Svast. Sure, there have been some speed bumps—OK, maybe mountains—to overcome, but he keeps bringing the beats as managing partner of After (the after-hours venue with the now-infamous “DJ Rules” for keeping the commercial tunes at bay). Check out Svast's handiwork at After's new home, 1923 Bourbon & Burlesque. In the Shoppes at
