

1923 Bourbon & Burlesque Joins Forces with AFTER on New After Hours Experience

1923

BURLESQUE - BOURBON

This Saturday, June 14, 1923 Bourbon & Burlesque joins forces with AFTER. Las Vegas to unveil 'AFTER. a #proper afterhours' experience every Saturday night 'til dawn (approx. 8 a.m.), delivering the hottest electronic underground dance music inside Vegas' 'best kept speakeasy,' seductively hidden off the casino floor at The Shoppes at Mandalay Bay. Synonymous with the subversive experience that now defines 1923, AFTER. offers guests a true underground party featuring house and techno headliners, as well as heavyweight resident DJs that have made their mark on the Vegas nightlife scene.

"The party after the party is the only party to be at, and 1923 is the perfect setting," said Thom Svast, creator/managing partner of AFTER. Las Vegas. "You will leave feeling like you were just a part of something great!"

Toronto-based DJ Nathan Barato and resident techno-duo Spacebyrdz kicks off AFTER., laying the tracks for the new soiree as part of the 1923's speakeasy experience. The evening begins at 7 p.m. with hand-crafted cocktails and classic burlesque from E! reality star Holly Madison and her ensemble of beautiful dancers. At 3 a.m., the scene shifts as AFTER. takes over, turning the underground hot spot into a bass-fueled dance party 'til dawn. Be sure to bring your sunglasses.
